PRIME MINISTER ROWLEY MEETS WITH LILLYANN WILLIAMS

The Honourable Dr. Keith Rowley met with Ms. Lillyann Williams today (Thursday 13th October, 2016) at the Office of the Prime Minister, St. Clair.

Prime Minister Rowley spoke of how his spirit was lifted after seeing photos of Ms. Williams lending assistance to a differently abled individual. The photos went viral on social media.

Prime Minister Rowley presented Ms. Williams with a token of appreciation and commended her “very kind deed” saying, “You have shared love where there is so much hate; you have shared caring where there is so much indifference.”

Dr. Rowley reiterated that Trinidad and Tobago is proud of Ms. Williams and encouraged her to continue working towards her goals.
